Narrowly Missed Child.
For a short time Thursday morning excitement prevailed along North Main street. A horse, hitched to a narrow and belonging to a farmer who lives off Boswell avenue, got away from the driver's control and dashed down Boswell avenue into North Main street. When near Fourth street the animal suddenly rushed up on the sidewalk and narrowly missed trampling a small child who was watching it as it rushed along at high speed, carrying the narrow with it. The horse was stopped on North Main street near the Marguerite building and returned to its owner. This is the second time within a few weeks that the horse has run away.

NEW VAULTS FOR BANK BUILDING
Received For Thames Bank and Shetucket Bank Fifty Years Ago—Gen. Grant's Army at the Rear of Vicksburg—Monument Prepared For a Norwich Soldier, Lieut. Marvin Wait, Killed at Antietam.

For the new bank building which was being erected in Shetucket street, two big iron vaults were received in this city this week fifty years ago and were to be placed for the Shetucket bank and the Thames bank. Their arrival excited much interest as they were something notable for those times.
There was some encouraging news from the front, both along the Rappahannock and at Vicksburg, where the Union and rebel armies were facing each other, but in some cases the glowing reports of Union successes proved to be only demonstrations.
The following are extracts from the Bulletin of '63.—Issue: Goodspeed of this town has received Her Majesty's Great Seal and Letters, Patent for Great Britain for his machine for cutting cork stoppers.
Remounted Capture of Richmond.
This city was thrown into a fever of excitement Saturday evening and Sunday by the reports over the wires that Richmond had been taken by troops from Suffolk and Virginia. There was great rejoicing over the news but the citizens very prudently refrained from public demonstrations and waited anxiously for a positive confirmation of the reports. Nothing confirmatory was received during the day and up to late hour last night nothing had been received, but we still have hopes that the first reports will be confirmed.
Grant Making Progress at Vicksburg.
The following is a special dispatch from Memphis to the Cincinnati Gazette: Gen. Grant has captured Grand Gulf, and is now at Vicksburg. On Wednesday Gen. Grant's main army was 30 miles up the Big Black river, marching on the rear of the Rebels. The Rebels were in a panic at the prospect of a speedy victory.

Wakefield, John M. Parker, Jr., and Charles B. Whittey of New London, Charles B. Warner and Eugene Boardman of East Haddam and Clarence H. Wickham of Manchester.
It was also voted at the meeting to invite the members of the Nathan Hale Memorial chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of East Haddam to take part in the ceremonies at the schoolhouse. The schoolhouse is perched on the bluff overlooking the Connecticut river.
The election of officers for the ensuing year will be one of the bits of business transacted at the annual meeting, while another will be the award of the society's medal to the "Nathan Hale boy," the special gold medal, given by Gov. Morgan G. Bulkeley will be awarded to that one of the ten "Nathan Hale boys" who contributes the best essay on "The Life and Character of Nathan Hale."
